1. Controller: Who is the Controller for your Personal Data

The responsible controller within the Zurn Group will depend on the processing activities that apply to you. For example,

- if you are a website user and visit a webpage of the Zurn Group (“Zurn Website”), the Controller is the affiliate of the Zurn Group identified on the webpage.
- If you are a customer, vendor, supplier or business partner and you interact with an affiliate of the Zurn Group for business reasons, the Controller is the affiliate of the Zurn Group with whom you interact.
- if you are a job applicant and you submitted your application, the affiliate of the Zurn Group who offers the job to which you apply is the Controller.

In the following, the term “Controller”, “we”, “us” or “our” refers to the affiliate of the Zurn Group that acts as the controller for the particular processing activities as explained above.

If you have any questions as to who the Controller of your personal data is, please contact us via the contact details set out in section 8.

2. Categories of Personal Data and Processing Purposes and Sources of Personal Data: What personal data do we process about you, why and from where?

Depending on whether you are a customer, vendor, supplier, business partner, job applicant and/or website user the Controller may process the following categories of personal data for the identified processing purposes:

2.1 Website Metadata

As a website user, you may use our Zurn Websites without actively providing any personal data. In this case, we will collect only the following metadata resulting from your usage of our Zurn Websites: browser type and version, operating system and interface, website from which you are visiting (referrer URL), webpage(s) you visit on our Zurn Websites and activity on those Zurn Websites, date and time of Zurn Websites’ access, device identifier or MAC address and internet protocol (IP) address. This personal data includes Internet or other Electronic Network Activity Information under the CCPA. Further personal data may be collected through cookies, see section 7 below.

The metadata will be used to enable your access to our Zurn Websites, to improve our services as well as the quality of our Zurn Websites. We will analyze user behavior in anonymized form to prevent fraud and misuse of our IT systems, as well as to ensure physical, IT, and network security.

Our website is not intended for use by those under the age of 16 and we do not knowingly collect, use, process or otherwise disclose information about children under the age of 16.

2.2 Contact details

If you contact us through a portal on a Zurn Website, you will be asked to provide the following personal data: name, company, title, address, email address, telephone number, and fax number. We process such personal data to answer your queries or information requests. This personal data includes Identifiers under the CCPA.

2.3 Newsletter and product catalogues

If you request our newsletter or product catalogues, we collect and process the following personal data: name, title, company name, email address, postal address (if requesting postal mails), and your voluntary request to receive marketing emails or postal mails. This personal data includes Identifiers under the CCPA. We process such personal data to provide you with the requested emails or postal mails, as well as to analyze your interests for marketing purposes, to distribute additional marketing materials and to analyze the success of our marketing activities, customer segmentation and customer profiling, lead generation to the extent permitted by applicable law.

2.4 Portal users

If you request access to an online portal we operate, in addition to the information described in Section 2.1 of this policy, we collect and process the following personal data: name, title, company name, email address, portal access username, portal access password and your voluntary request to receive access to such portal. This personal data includes Identifiers under the CCPA. We process such personal data to facilitate your access to the portal, to protect the security of our systems and infrastructure, to meet regulatory and legal obligations, to establish or defend legal claims, and to meet contractual obligations. We may also use such information to analyze your interests for marketing purposes, to distribute additional marketing materials and to analyze the success of our marketing activities, customer segmentation, customer profiling, lead generation, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

2.5 plumbSMART ™ and inSpec users

To the extent provided to us, we collect and process the following personal data of plumbSMART ™ and inSpec users: name, email address, company postal address. This personal data includes Identifiers under the CCPA. We process this information to facilitate the connected device operation and meet our contractual obligations.

2.6 Business Partners

To the extent provided to us, we collect and process the following personal data of current and potential business partner contacts: name, title, function, company name, company email address, company postal address, and any voluntary requests for communications from us. This personal data includes Identifiers under the CCPA. We process this information to facilitate business partner engagements, to protect the security of our systems and infrastructure, to meet regulatory and legal obligations, to establish and defend legal claims, and to meet contractual obligations.

2.7 Visitors to Our Premises

To the extent provided to us, we collect and process the following personal data of visitors to our premises: name, title, company name, function, company email address, company postal address, identity of visitor’s Zurn contact, date and duration of visit, vehicle information, and information necessary to facilitate in-person visits in accordance with government and/or health regulator direction or advice, including, with visitor consent where necessary, temperature and only in accordance with applicable law. This personal data includes Identifiers and Health Information under the CCPA. Our premises may also be subject to CCTV, biometric or other security solutions that may capture images and/or audio of visitors, in accordance with applicable law. We process this information to facilitate such in-person visits, to protect our company, employees and visitors, to meet regulatory and legal obligations, to establish and defend legal claims, and to meet contractual obligations.

2.8 Job Applicants

If you apply for a position with us, in addition to the information described in Section 2.1 above (to the extent applicable), we collect and process the following categories of personal data from or about job applicants:

- Identifiers, including full name, contact information (e.g., personal and/or business address, personal and/or business phone/fax numbers, email addresses), user name and password (if using an applicant portal), citizenship / residency information, age (to the extent necessary); marital status, religious belief (if voluntarily provided by you)

- Certain categories of sensitive information and data (to the extent permitted by applicable law), including facial photographs (if voluntarily provided by you), Characteristics of Protected Classifications (as defined under the CCPA), including gender, ethnicity, nationality, disability information, and military and veteran status (each only to the extent voluntarily provided by you with your express consent);

- Professional or employment-related information, including languages spoken and skills, software experience, professional memberships, summaries of strengths and technical areas of expertise, pre-Company work history information (e.g., previous employers and positions held, dates, locations, supervisors, responsibilities, salary), resume and cover letter information, references and information obtained from them, and related background check (to the extent permitted, and in accordance with applicable law);

- Education information, including education, and certificates and degrees obtained; and

- Other information, including any other information reasonably necessary for us to carry out our legal or regulatory obligations.

We use such personal data to facilitate the collection, administration and processing of your application, to determine your suitability for the role for which you have applied or for similar roles.
within our company, to conduct background checks (in accordance with applicable law) as part of your application, and to complying with applicable laws, company policies and employment-related requirements. Where required by law, we will provide an additional job applicant notice.

3. Categories of Recipients and International Transfers: Who do we transfer your personal data to and where are they located?

In the preceding twelve (12) months, we have transferred and disclosed, and we further may transfer, your personal data to third parties for the processing purposes described above as follows. The personal data transferred may include Identifiers, Internet or other Electronic Network Activity Information, Health Information, Characteristics of Protected Classifications, Education Information and Professional and Employment-related Information and Sensitive Information:

- Within the Zurn Group: Affiliates within the Zurn Group may receive your personal data as necessary for the processing purposes described above. Depending on the categories of personal data and the purposes for which the personal data has been collected, different internal departments within the Zurn Group may receive your personal data. For example, our IT department may have access to your account data. Moreover, other departments within the Zurn Group have access to certain personal data about you on a need-to-know basis, such as the legal department, the finance department, or internal auditing. Depending on their processing activities, such affiliates may act as processors or as controllers.

  The affiliates of the Zurn Group processing data are identified in Annex 1.

- To service providers / processors: Certain service providers (for a business purpose), whether affiliated or unaffiliated, may receive your personal data to process such data under appropriate instructions as necessary for the processing purposes described above as processors. Such service providers may include website service providers, marketing service providers, IT support service providers, cloud service providers, distributors, vendors and other service providers who support us in carrying out our business activities and maintaining our commercial relationship with you. Such service providers will act on our behalf and will be subject to contractual obligations to implement appropriate technical and organizational security measures to safeguard your personal data and to process your personal data only as instructed.

  You can ask for further details of currently engaged service providers by contacting us as set out in Section 8 below.

- Other recipients: In compliance with applicable data protection law, we may transfer personal data to local or foreign law enforcement agencies, governmental authorities, judicial authorities, legal counsel, external consultants, or business partners. In case of a corporate merger or acquisition, personal data may be transferred to the third parties involved in the merger or acquisition.

  Any access to your personal data is restricted to individuals with a need-to-know and only if required to fulfill their job responsibilities.
Privacy Policy

- Sales. We do not share your personal data with the parties listed in this Privacy Policy in a manner that constitutes a "sale" under the CCPA or under Nevada Revised Statutes 603A.

4. Retention Period: How long do we keep your personal data?

Your personal data will be retained as long as necessary to provide you with the services and products requested. Your metadata will be deleted 26 months after your visit to the Zurn Website. Your newsletter registration data will be deleted after you inform us that you no longer want to receive marketing information from us. Your job applicant data will be deleted within the local statutory retention periods. If you are a customer or vendor contact, your data will be kept as long as we consider your company a customer of our products. In case of a deletion request, we may be required to delete all or certain of your personal data sooner.

If we are required by applicable law to retain your personal data, we will not delete them. We may also retain your personal data if we need your personal data to establish, exercise, or defend a legal claim, only on a need-to-know basis. To the extent possible and commercially and technically practicable, we will restrict the processing of your personal data for such limited purposes after the termination of the contractual relationship.

5. Your Rights: What rights do you have and how can you assert your rights?

Right to withdraw your consent: If you have declared your consent regarding certain collecting, processing, and use of your personal data (in particular, regarding the receipt of direct marketing communication via email, SMS/WhatsApp, and telephone), you can withdraw this consent at any time. Such a withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of the processing prior to the consent withdrawal. You can withdraw your consent as follows: send an email request to dataprivacy@zurn.com. Further, you can object to the use of your personal data for the purposes of marketing without incurring any costs other than the transmission costs in accordance with basic tariffs.

Additional data privacy rights: Pursuant to applicable data protection law, you may have the right to: (i) request access to your personal data; (ii) request rectification of your personal data; (iii) request erasure of your personal data; (iv) request restriction of processing of your personal data; (v) request data portability; and/or (vi) object to the processing of your personal data (including objection to direct marketing and profiling). Please note that these aforementioned rights might be limited under the applicable local data protection law.

Detailed information on data privacy rights under GDPR: Below please find further information on your rights to the extent that the GDPR applies:

Further information on data privacy rights under CCPA: Subject to certain exceptions and qualifications, as a California resident, you have the right to: (i) request access to your personal information; and (ii) request deletion of your personal information. Should you wish to request the exercise of your rights as detailed above with regard to your personal information, we will not discriminate against you by offering you different pricing or products, or by providing you with a different level or quality of products, based solely upon this request. Only you, or a person registered with the California Secretary of State that you authorize to act on your behalf may submit these requests.

Contact details to exercise your data privacy rights: To exercise your rights, please contact us as stated under Section 8 below.

6. Cookies and other tracking technologies

When you visit our Zurn Website, we will use cookies to ensure you get the best website experience. These cookies might process and store information about you, your preferences, or your device. Because we respect your right to privacy, you can choose not to allow some types of cookies. Full information on the various cookies, including the party responsible for the cookie, the type of information processed by the cookies, the purposes of the cookies and the classification of the cookie as “necessary cookie”, “performance cookie”, “functional cookie” or “targeting cookies” can be found in the cookie management tool accessible here.

Necessary Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the Zurn Website to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions made by you in a request for services, such as setting your privacy preferences, logging in, or filling in forms.

You can set your browser to block or alert you about these cookies, but if you do, some parts of the Zurn Website will not work.

Performance Cookies

These cookies allow us to count visits and traffic sources so we can measure and improve the performance of our Zurn Website. They help us to know which pages are the most and least popular and see how visitors move around the site.

In order to place those cookies, we require your consent. If you do not allow these cookies, we will not know when you have visited our site, and will not be able to monitor its performance.

Functional Cookies

These cookies enable our Zurn Website to provide enhanced functionality and personalization. They may be set by us or by third party providers whose services we have added to our Zurn Websites.

In order to place those cookies, we require your consent. If you do not allow these cookies, then some or all of these services may not function properly.

Targeting Cookies

These cookies may be set through our Zurn Websites by our advertising partners. They may be used by those advertising partners to build a profile of your interests and show you relevant advertisements on other sites.

They can uniquely identify your browser and internet device. In order to place those cookies, we require your consent. If you do not allow these cookies, you will experience less targeted advertising.

7. Questions and Contact Information
